What are your favorite Christmas memories?

If we let them, memories (good or bad) from our past can be what defines us. What are some memories of your past you have let define you?

1 John 1:9, 2 Corinthians 5:17-18

We might not forget it, but God will forgive it. What are things that have happened to you or others that you find hard to forgive? How can you become more like Christ to forgive others so you can focus on the Savior this Christmas and not the past? Matthew 6:33, Romans 8:5
